
the problem: controls over time, a cost, the dynamics, the limits direct: turn the controls (and states) into numbers optimise the numbers with gradients (shooting, collocation, iLQR) indirect: derive the conditions an optimum must meet (Pontryagin) solve those conditions numerically discretise, then optimise optimise, then discretise