

gradient travels from the loss back to the weight; each arrow multiplies by its local derivative

