

momentum

both pushes are computed at  $w_t$ , where the slope still points right:
a big overshoot

Nesterov accelerated gradient jump first, then measure the slope where we land: it points back, so the step is corrected